

WHAT'S NEW AT POWERTEST26?

Plan your five-day high-power training at PowerTest26 — NEW This Year! Expanded four-hour seminars, a new tech-focused Friday with experiential learning, and a hands-on safety challenge to test your skills.

ELECTRICAL SAFETY IMMERSION EXPERIENCE

New to PowerTest26 – The Ultimate Electrical Safety Immersion Experience

March 3, 2025, at PowerTest26 Trade Show Booth #923

Elevate your electrical safety expertise and test your knowledge. Step into the ultimate hands-on engagement experience. Explore Innovations; discover new technologies, PPE, and life-saving tools; and test your knowledge.

POWERTEST26 TECHNICIAN LEVEL-UP RECEPTION

NETA and AVO Celebrate the Backbone of the Power Industry

March 4, 2026, directly following the training day sessions
Free for all PowerTest26 four- and five-day registrants

NETA and AVO Training Institute honor the dedication of our industry's essential electrical testing technicians and maintenance professionals. Connect with power professionals, NETA Technicians, NETA Approved Military Organization members, and Qualified Electrical Equipment Maintenance Workers through stories, shared insights, and celebration. NETA Technicians will also be recognized and receive their Level-Up Coins.

POWERTEST26 FRIDAY INNOVATIVE TECHNOLOGY TRAINING DAY

Friday Training Expanded!

March 5, 2026

On Friday, Day Five of PowerTest26, participants can tailor their experience with multiple training options designed to match their interests and goals. Choose from 10 different four-hour seminars. Session training includes transformer maintenance (Doble), power system digitization (Megger), and new technologies and maintenance best practices from Eaton, Siemens, and Schneider Electric. Sign up now for hands-on learning!